Rail Boarder Pass holders are entitled to free travel on the NSW TrainLink and Sydney Trains services between the stations nearest to home and school on weekends and at the commencement and end of school vacation periods.

- Conditions of Use:
- Available for travel by the most direct means between the stations nearest to home and school without a break of journey.
  - Valid for one return journey between the boarding school attended and the student's residence on weekends during the school year and at the start and end of term vacations.
  - Only available for travel by the student named and is not transferrable.
  - The Boarder Rail Pass must be carried at all times when travelling and be produced as requested by a Transport Officer or Police Officer.
  - The pass is rendered invalid by any alteration.
  - Lost, stolen or damaged passes can be replaced on application through transportnsw.info.
  - Please note the Boarder Rail Pass is not a valid form of Concession entitlement for other travel routes. Students can apply for a Senior Secondary Student concession entitlement card via their school administration office if needed.
